Loyens & Loeff is an independent international law firm specialised in providing Benelux and Swiss legal and tax advice to enterprises, financial organisations and governments.

Worldwide, Loyens & Loeff has over 1,450 employees, including more than 800 legal and tax experts in seven Benelux offices and eleven branches in the major international financial centres, including Dubai since January 2008. When providing international advice, Loyens & Loeff maintains close relationships with leading law firms and tax advisers around the world. In this way, Loyens & Loeff offers top-level advice and is capable of effectively structuring and supervising both domestic and international matters.

The Loyens & Loeff Dubai office consists of Dutch corporate and tax lawyers as well as Luxembourg fund lawyers mainly focussing on international tax, investment protection and Benelux corporate law matters including the incorporation of Benelux entities and private equity and real estate investment funds.

The Dubai office's main practise relates to UAE/Gulf outbound investments, joint ventures, private equity, group restructuring and family offices.
